

1. Welcome & Introductions

Angela Woodley, Monica Pyear, Jacob Bretz, Ryan Day, Sarah Baxter, Jenn Harezlak, Toni Peter, Heather Dubrick, Tracy Lee Hunter, Jennifer Busko & Melanie Will.

2. Appreciations:

- Thanks Ryan for handling student protest and for follow-up email
- Thank you teachers for navigating through Valentine's Day and making it happen for the kids
- Thanks to everyone involved in the Olympic Games activities throughout the school

3. Review of January 2022 Minutes & Agenda

- Minutes reviewed.

4. Principal's Report:

- Staffing
  - Short term virtual learning ended Friday. All students back to in person learning
  - Kyle Selmes left BPS and is now full time at WO
  - Hired Rachel Steckley to replace who was previously in for Mrs. Tobin.
- Learning:
  - No assemblies still
  - February is Black History Month, some highlights in announcements but topics are cover throughout the year not just one month
  - Valentines Day reframed to work in school
  - A big thank you and appreciation to Monica Pyear for spearheading the school wide Olympic activities covering all grades and divisions.
  - Term 1 report cards go home Feb 16
  - Baden Equity team should be able to guide equity initiatives
  - Monarch Waystation started last week
- Question: Will sports return to school? When?
  - Answer: No feedback from board yet. Elementary schools cleared for mixed cohort intermural. High schools are cleared for cross school.

5. Teacher Staff Update/Student Report

- Jill Pollock wanted to share some slides from the Monarch Waystation presentation, que slides
- School wide Olympic coverage with the help of 9 staff working together and all rooms
  - All classes assigned a sport to cover
  - Following all medals and count updates
  - One teacher made up medals being tracked outside the gym
  - Classroom doors being decorated

- Students got to walk around the school today to see all of the different doors, great way to build school community
- There were hidden flags all through the walk for students to find like a scavenger hunt
- Each class got to make medal predictions
